SENIORS

SENIORS

As we, the Seniors, look back over the last four years of our lives, we remember the fun times and the hard times. As we take a look back on our Freshman year, starting off in a new school with new teachers and a lot more students, we were hardly ever included in upperclassmen affairs. Then we went from Freshmen to become Sophomores. We tried to become like the "Seniors" but failed in our attempt. Our Junior year soon came upon us without notice and we began to feel more like a part of the school. We were invited by Seniors to their activities and had some of our own. Finally the big moment was here. It was our turn to be "Mighty Seniors!" It was our time to be the upperclassmen, and we were. Senior year has been a special memory to each Senior. The fun, the friendships and the special times will always be a part of us. Now we prepare for our future and leave our Alma Mater with beautiful memories.

Leaving band camp this summer full of hopes and dreams, the band marched its way into a highly successful season. It was because of its participation in a marching contest in Winter Haven, Florida that the band walked away with the well-deserved and highly coveted award for "Best Use of Woodwinds". Following this, the band confidently entered the annual District XII Marching Contest and emerged with straight superiors — the highest possible score!

The "Fiddler on the Roof" show was the highlight of the majority of the football games. However, the band's "Tribute to Michael Jackson" was undoubtedly its most popular performance. It was with the music of the latter that the band became the hit of all of the pep rallies and broke tradition by receiving the Spirit stick at the last pep rally of the season!

Vocal Tech. Choir

Under the outstanding highly-proclaimed direction of Earl F. Little, the chorus accomplishments go on and on.

The Louisiana World Exposition took pleasure in announcing the acceptance of the Fort Pierce Central Concert Choir to perform at the 1984 World's Fair on Tuesday, May 29, 1984. The Fair Committee received many applications from schools across the United States. Central was congratulated on the quality of their performance as demonstrated by the audition materials which were submitted.

The Louisiana World Exposition was delighted that Mr. Earl Little and his chorus would be joining in the Louisiana World Exposition. The Louisiana Exposition was not the only big event that the chorus entered. The concert choir entered the Six Flags over Georgia Festival in April 1983. They not only received a unanimous superior rating but were also awarded the trophy for the BEST in their class.

Putting the pieces of research together to make a good edition are Sharon Collins and Idella Morgan.

Winfield Trivette, a late addition to the staff, works on a layout.

Eric Ponder patiently does a paste-up for the newspaper.

Kim Keaney and Michelle Valentine work together on making one of the many issues of Nulla Pambu.

Nulla Pambu

The Nulla Pambu has published monthly issues during the 83-84 school year. The newspaper featured athletic teams, student achievers, faculty members, and school news. Having a staff of only eight members, meant that every member had to learn every aspect of producing the newspaper, from selling ads, to writing editorials. It's a great way to learn more about the world of journalism.

NEWSPAPER

Being a new club of only three years, Debate has prospered into one of the most prestigious clubs on campus. Students have a chance to show their academic ability through competitions in areas of extemporaneous speaking, interpretation, oratory, Lincoln-Douglas debate, and traditional debate.

Debaters have been awarded here at school and out of school as a result of their hard work and extensive research.

This year has proven to be both rewarding and a challenge to the debaters as they presented their affirmative and negative cases and plans to the Florida Forensics Program.

Best of luck on the continuation of Debate's success.

Maurice Bourgeois and Beverly Mac Issac confer with each other on how to present their case.

Cory Bytof confidently watches on as his partner, George England, presents evidence to support their case.

Curtain call at the Variety Show.

Movie! Plays! Talent! Stardom! Acting! These are the future aspirations of the Drama club members. The club is composed of a group of outgoing talented students interested in acting. Some of their efforts include: The Variety Show, One act plays, and this year's play, "Our Town." Together they enjoy pursuing their life long dream, to become famous! May their goals become realities and may they reach the stars!

They raised money by having bake sells, candy sells, and a booth at the Carnival. The money was used to help the members with the cost of going to the competitions. The money was well spent thanks to the guidance of Mr. Orr, the sponsor.

Have you seen purple shirts around with funny names on the back? These represent members of the Spirit of '84. School spirit was demonstrated early in the year by the wearing of these shirts to all the football games. The club led by Cory Bytof, president, and some 84 members gave the best funeral procession ever seen! Upon completion of a very humorous funeral; the club began its 36-hour endurance Rock-a-thon. The club raised over $500 which was donated to the Shriner's Child Burn and Abuse Center. Great Job Seniors! After the catching of a few zzz's, the members then challenged the school in the annual food drive for the needy. They generated enough interest to obtain numerous cans for the Salvation Army. The Spirit of '84 was definitely spirited and organized both on and off campus and in the community!

Deadlines? Lay outs? Copy? Confusion about these terms was soon resolved as old and new staff members worked together to organize the ladder diagram for the yearbook.

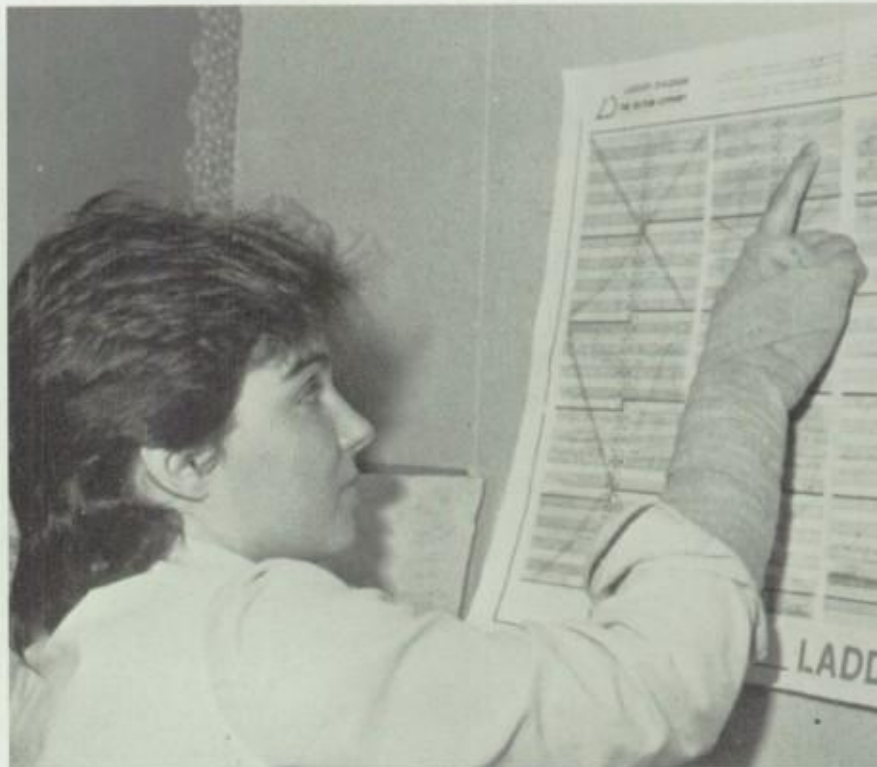

In the meantime, staffers were out selling ads which proved to be both, frustrating and maddening. With the pressure on for deadlines, taking pictures, and just keeping it together, the yearbook was completed. Under the careful guidance and talented mind of Miss Penny Scialdo, the best book in the history of Central was produced.

Cobra cheerleaders sailed their way to V-I-C-T-O-R-Y as demonstrated by Hallie Zickefoose and Shaunté Miller.

Practice everyday for weeks and weeks! Sponsored by Mrs. Bette Hill, the varsity cheerleaders perform at every football and basketball game, rain or shine, with their enthusiasm and smiles. Supporting the athletics, along with most every school activity, one will find one or more of the cheerleaders. They attended the National Cheerleader Association camp during the summer of 1983. There they were awarded several blue ribbons (highest award) and they won a spirit stick for enthusiasm. An appropriate name has been tagged for these cheerleaders, as they prove that they are leaders not only in front of a crowd, but through their involvement in school activities and in their community.

"'SILKWOOD' is one of the best
American films of the year.

It makes you feel good about American moviemaking.
Entertainment means style, energy, talent working at full incandescence. By these criteria 'SILKWOOD' is not only a powerful film, it's a compelling entertainment in both senses of the word. A movie that shouldn't be moving film. One can't help loving a tragic movie with so fertile a sense of the incongruous. 'SILKWOOD' has a pleasantly disheveled comic spirit. We get pulled all the

△ If George Lucas has wearied of Star Wars, the public hasn't. Return of the Jedi, Lucas' concluding chapter in his space-fantasy trilogy, was another blockbuster (see Top Tens, p. 4) that pleased fans with its answers to galactic riddles. Now everyone knows who Luke Skywalker's father really is, why Princess Leia feels that way about him and what a fuzzy Ewok looks like. If Jedi was a sequel whose time had come (six years to the day after the original Star Wars premiered), the future of the series now hangs suspended in Lucastime. The filmmaker who made an empire out of his invention is reportedly too fatigued to consider the previously announced six remaining chapters.

MISS FLAME

MISS FLORIDA TEEN

Miss Flame for 1983 is Marjorie Lillie, 16 (left). Miss Flame is a student here at F.P.C. The contest was held at IRCC on October 27, 1983.

For nearly 40 of its 62 years, the Miss America Pageant barred blacks from competition. Last Sept. 17, Vanessa Williams, Miss New York, became the first black to wear the glittering crown. First runner-up, Suzette Charles of New Jersey, is also black.

MISS AMERICA

Nancy Beth DeVane, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Jerry DeVane, Fort Pierce, was crowned Miss Florida U.S. Teen at a pageant held Feb. 11 in Lakeland. She was selected from 81 contestants, judged on service to their school, church and community; scholastic achievements; poise; and appearance. Nancy, a 17-year-old junior at Fort Pierce Central High School, is also the reigning Miss Florida Flame. As Miss Florida U.S. Teen, Nancy will compete for the national title of Miss U.S. Teen this summer in Alabama. Congratulating Nancy is Lori Jo Riddle, the current Miss U.S. Teen.

Students strut their stuff

Fort Pierce Central High School Drama Department presented a variety show in December 15, 1983.

The program featured Joan Rivers impersonator Nikki Cronin as the Mistress of Ceremonies whose caustic wit kept the audience laughing between the acts.

Drama teacher Kristen Taylor encouraged the students to experiment on stage with the audience reaction to group acts such as the Symphony of Social Criticisms and the Sphinx.

Brenda Dashner

Dashner earns writing award

Brenda Dashner, a student at Fort Pierce Central High School, was presented with an Achievement Award in Writing from the National Council of Teachers of English at the November 22 meeting of the St. Lucie County School Board. The award was in recognition of Dashner's outstanding performance in the council's national writing competition.

Dashner maintains a 4.0 average, and serves as an officer in both the National Honor Society and the French National Honor Society. Her participation on Central's swim team earned her The Port St. Lucie News' Female Scholar-Athlete trophy. Dashner set a new school record for the backstroke.

Fort Pierce Central students (left to right) Nikki Cronin and Tom Neal were two of the performers in a drama department variety show held December 15.

To smoke or not to smoke

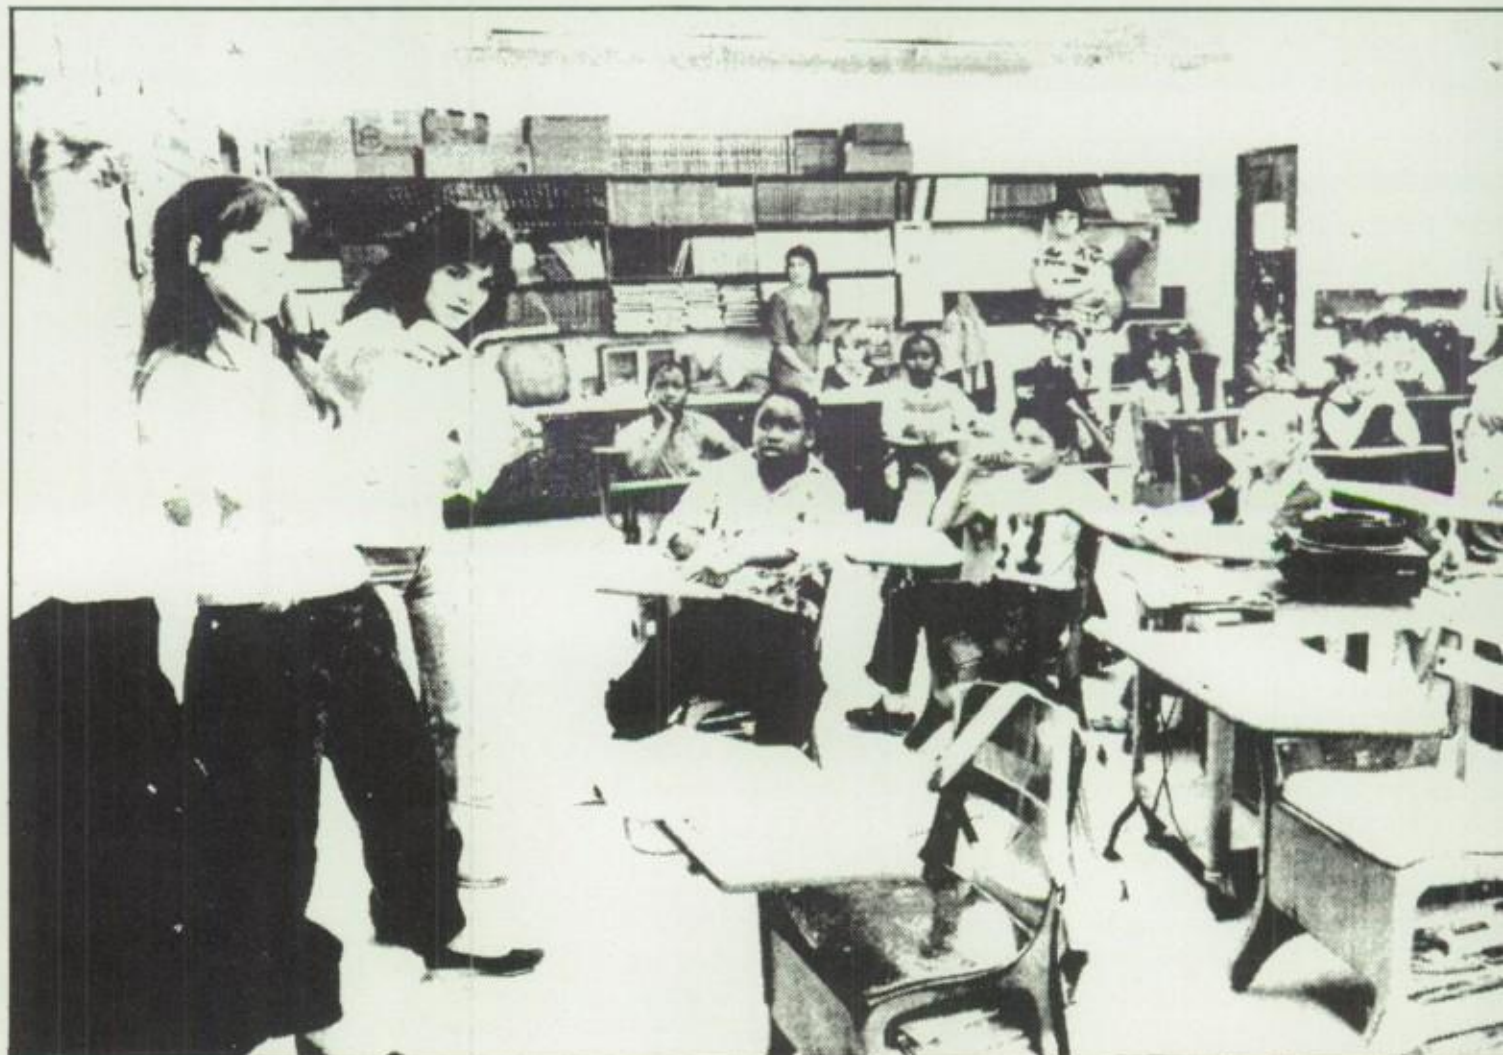

Lynn Guelzow, program administrator for the American Lung Association of Southeast Florida, conducted a Students-Teach-Students program for six fifth grade classes at White City Elementary.

Students-Teach-Students is a program that trains teams of high school students to present a smoking education program and role model to fifth graders, helping them to overcome peer pressure to smoke cigarettes and marijuana. Surveys have shown that a significant percentage of students first begin to experiment with smoking in the fifth grade.

The high school students are trained to communicate easily with the younger child. They are also provided with information on the function of the respiratory system and the affects of smoking.

This is the third year that the Students-Teach-Students program has been held in St. Lucie County. There will be a total of seven elementary schools participating in the program. Students from Fort Pierce Central High School and members of the Junior Civitans Club will act as the student presenters.

In the past five years, the program has reached over 6,000 students in the American Lung Association of Southeast Florida's five county area.

Fort Pierce Central High School senior John Milner was awarded the $50 first prize at the Soroptimist Club district debate held on November 17. Fellow senior Maria Patrizio received a certificate of recognition for her participation.

Under the direction of teacher Phillipa Jones, the students discussed the government's role in business and science, highlighting inflation, foreign trade and high technology's impact on the future.

In the spring of 1984, Milner will participate in the Soroptimist Club's regional debate to be held in Orlando.

Congratulations and Good Luck to the winner!

Angelea Robyn McLeod

Angelea Robyn McLeod, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McLeod of Fort Pierce, has been accepted as a state finalist in the Miss Florida American Co-Ed pageant to be held April 20, 21 and 22, at the Hyatt Regency in Tampa.

HAMADRYAD:

STAFF PREPARES

By Winfield Trivette

The staff of the HAMADRYAD, Central's yearbook, is on top of its deadlines so that each student can have his or her copy for the May distribution. Eight hundred copies of the HAMADRYAD are on order, and only 400 remain unsold. Have you reserved your copy? The cost of the annual is $22.00, and can be reserved in room C 122. Purchase your annual today before all copies are reserved.

The HAMADRYAD advisor, Miss Penny Scialdo, assisted by her two editors, Suzanne McTighe and Thomas Neal, are making sure that the books are a very special record of this year at Central.

All clubs and organizations are being covered by Tim Richardson, Carlen Paschall, and Suzanne McTighe. James Stables is the executive of the sports department. Photographers are James Stables, Tim Richardson, Tom Neal, George A. Neal, Linda Marks, and Suzanne McTighe. Business Manager Henry Esposito budgets the annual's funds, and keeps records of all ads sold. The senior advisors are LaDeen Agler, Ingrid De Sanctis, and Rose Giambanco. Linda Marks and George A. Neal are heads of the personnel section.

(JIMBOB)

The time that's elapsed from birth until now, has transformed you from a boy to a man.
Ahead you must go, but your question is how,
reach for your star, achieve what you can.
The knowledge you have attained,
the wisdom you've yet to achieve.
Our faith in you, in our hearts is contained,
you'll be what you want, all you do is believe.
You're special to us, in every possible way,
we shared in your joy and hurt with your pain.
Our love for you grows with each passing day,
even your moods that make our relationship a strain.
If you ever feel you need comfort or someone to listen,
we're always here for you, whether you need us or not.
So, be what you are and let your personality glisten,
go ahead this day and begin your future to plot.
We will miss you as you enter life on your own,
our faith and trust in you lets us know you'll do right.
We have watched your abilities increase as you have grown.
Congratulations Jim for your achievements and of our love and understanding don't ever lose sight.

The Year That Was

Fort Pierce Elementary School is on National Register of Historic Places

The News Tribune
Fort Pierce/Port St. Lucie, Florida Friday, February 17, 1984

By Gregory Enns
News Tribune Writer

When the school board started building a new high school for Fort Pierce back in 1914, the townspeople were outraged.

They complained that the school, at Delaware Avenue and 10th Street, was too far out in the boondocks. Dairy cows lived out there, they said, not schoolchildren.

Today, that "old yellow brick school" sits in the town's hub and is still a seat of learning.

And, this week, officials from the National Park Service announced the building, now called Fort Pierce Elementary School, has been listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Jackson: monstrous success

TIME, FEBRUARY 20, 1984

A 'New Generation' in ad costs

Pepsi-Cola's two commercials starring rock superstar Michael Jackson and his five brothers, plus a planned summer tour, cost the company $7 million, Pepsi executives said Monday. Pepsi official Alan Pottasch said production costs amounted to $2 million and $5 million, including the cost of the planned tour by the Jackson brothers. Pottasch's accounting at a New York press preview of Pepsi's "New Generation" ad campaign was the first time the company revealed a price for the widely publicized ads. "At first that seemed like a lot of money," said Roger Enrico, president of Pepsi-Cola USA. "I gagged a bit. I asked my wife what she thought and she said it was too much. My son said it wasn't, so we went with it." Most television miniseries cost $10 million or less to make.

There are 30-second and 60-second versions of both Jackson commercials, which feature the brothers singing Pepsi lyrics to the music of Michael Jackson's super-hit Billie Jean. Pepsi wrote 85 per cent of the lyrics and Jackson wrote the rest, according to the BBD&O advertising firm, which created the ads. One of the commercials, "Street," was scheduled to premiere on cable television's MTV Monday night, free of charge for Pepsi. The other ad, "Concert," is to debut on CBS tonight during the Grammy Awards.

It was during the making of "Concert" last month at Los Angeles' Shrine Auditorium that Jackson's hair was set afire by pyrotechnics. The ad jumps between the Jackson brothers backstage, getting ready for a concert, and the crowd outside, ordering plenty of Pepsi. The five older brothers go onstage followed by Michael's appearance at the top of a flight of stairs, with fireworks going off behind him. The "Street" commercial features the Jackson brothers' surprise encounter with a group of pre-teen street kids led by 12-year-old Alfonso Ribeiro, star of Broadway's The Tap Dance Kid.

The Number one cartoon or cat was, Garfield!

Some waited in line for three hours but it took only a minute Sunday for customers to snatch up 100 Cabbage Patch Kids dolls offered at one Fort Pierce store.

"Usually there is something every Christmas that's in short supply, but I've never seen anything like it, never," one Zayre employee said Sunday.

When the doors open at 10 a.m., people pushed and shoved and ran to the toy department to get their hands on the popular doll.

"I guess I forgot that human beings are also animals," one man who watched the event said.

The store placed a limit of two per family and Zayre employees weren't given special treatment.

"We had one employee who was out there with everyone else at 7 a.m.," an employee said.

Ironically, the store offered the same doll back in September and the supply lasted about a week, he said.

dolls sell for as much as $1,000 each.

Coleco's version sells for $21.88 and comes with a birth certificate, adoption papers and the claim that no two dolls are exactly alike.

Zayre isn't the only store to sell the dolls and officials there weren't sure if they'd get another shipment before Christmas.

Voice of the Heart

Perhaps success ate Karen Carpenter alive. Although she and brother Richard sang about the sweet promise of life, her own existence was hard to swallow. Plagued by career pressures, Carpenter suffered from anorexia nervosa, starving herself and using laxatives for over nine years. The 5'4" Carpenter shrank to 85 lbs. after separating last year from husband Tom Burris. She was slowly regaining weight, but the extra pounds taxed her heart and the 32-year-old died of a coronary attack on Feb. 4. The recent release of Voice of the Heart, the Carpenters' 42nd album, should add to Karen's legacy of three Grammys and 80 million records sold.
